"greater distances, twenty five (25) cents.

"For both day and night messages an addi-
"-tion of one fifth the rate is to be made for
"every five (5) words or fraction thereof in excess
"of twenty (20) words.

"Provided, That in no case shall the Govern-
"-ment be charged higher rates than the public
"is charged for the same service.

"All Officers of the United States should en-
"-dorse upon official messages transmitted by them
"the words, "Official Business," and should report
"to the Postmaster General, any charge in excess
"of the above rates."

You will please see that in making payments to the Telegraph companies, you do not exceed the rate authorized by the Postmaster General; and you will also comply with the last requirements of the Circular.

Very respectfully
